Fulbright Sees More Trading With the Reds

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said today a survey shows a great many American businessmen are looking to the Administration to open new avenues of trade with the Communists.

Fulbright made public letters received by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which he heads, as part of its investigation into the advisability of expanding trade with Soviet Russia and its Eastern European satellites. Fulbright toured Yugoslavia this week at the invitation of the Tito government.

The investigation was started last spring after Canada's sale of wheat to Russia and the subsequent sale of privately-owned American wheat to the Soviets with Export-Import Bank credit guarantees.

The findings could lead the Johnson Administration into new policy decisions in the new session of Congress.

Viet N. Reds Capitalizing on Disaster

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Communist Viet Cong guerrillas, capitalizing on the floods that have laid waste to 10 provinces, are reported moving openly from the mountains into the crippled valley villages of central Viet Nam.

Refugees from the flood told Vietnamese authorities they had been accosted by Viet Cong men and forced to tear up their identity papers. Widespread elimination of the papers would help the Communists to move with comparative freedom through the disrupted region.

Reliable sources said today the refugees disclosed the Viet Cong movements during interviews in government relief compounds in the coastal resort of Nhatrang and at QuiNhon Thursday.

Despite the floods, which have drowned more than 5,000 persons and wrecked communications, students in Saigon, staged new antigovernment demonstrations today.

Shouting demands for the end of Premier Tran Van Huong's infant civilian government, several hundred students shoved through police ranks and assembled before the central market. About 1,000 persons gathered to shout "down with dictatorship, communism and neutralism."

The Saigon government can do little about Viet Cong activity in the flooded regions. Communications are disrupted and highways and railroad beds washed away in an area the size of New Jersey.

Arkansas Horse Brings $125,000

SEARCY, Ark. (AP)—Perfection's Carbon Copy, world champion Tennessee walking horse, has been sold by his five Arkansas owners to George Lennox of the GLL Farms at Collierville, Tenn.

The reported sale price was $125,000, said to be the highest ever paid for a show horse. Neither the buyer nor the sellers would confirm the figure.

Perfection's Carbon Copy became a world champion in September at Shelbyville, Tenn., following in the footsteps of his famous sire, Perfection.

After a show this weekend in Montgomery, Ala., he will be retired from the show ring and will be used for breeding purposes.

He was owned by a partnership made up of Dr. T. J. Raney, Dallas P. Raney and Binns, all of Little Rock, and Dr. Porter Rodgers and Joe Webb, both of Searcy.

Webb trained both Perfection and Perfection's Carbon Copy.

NEW ROLE FOR ELLIS ISLAND?—Ellis Island, a 26-acre sand bar in New York harbor, was once the first American soil touched by millions of immigrants. Decaying for a decade, it may soon become a National Historical Site with recreational and cultural facilities. Interior Secretary Stewart Udall has made such a recommendation to the President. This is a recent photo of the battered main building, which may become a museum.

Murder Trial Is Postponed

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Frederick Rush's second-degree murder trial has been postponed until Dec. 14 because of an injury to Deputy Prosecutor Wayland Parker.

Parker fell from a tree Tuesday while deer hunting and injured his knee.

His foot caught in a fork in a tree limb and he dangled upside-down for about 40 minutes before he could cut his shoestrings, slide his foot out and fall free. Then he crawled about a half-mile and found help.

Rush is charged in the fatal shooting of his foster father, Paul Rush here in May 1962.

Young Rush was convicted of first-degree murder in a previous trial in the death and was sentenced to life in prison. The state Supreme Court ordered a new trial for him.

Dog Racing at Spas Is Considered

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Dr. Edwin Dunaway of Conway, chairman of the state Racing Commission, said Thursday that four out-of-state groups are interested in putting a dog race track in Hot Springs.

West Memphis' now has the only dog race track in the state — operated by the Southland Corp., which was not among the firms Dunaway said had contacted him.

He said the groups that reached him were represented by persons from Miami, Denver, Phoenix and Berryville, Va.

They were interested before the Nov. 3 general election, in which a proposal that would have legalized casino gambling in Garland County was defeated.

Pari-mutuel betting is legal in West Memphis at the dog race track and in Hot Springs at Oaklawn Park horse race track.

Dunaway said he advised the groups to wait until after the election to see how the casino gambling proposal fared. He has not heard from them since, he said, but he added that he expects them to get in touch with him again.

Garland County residents authorized a dog race track in 1957, but the Racing Commission revoked a franchise it had granted to the Hot Springs Kennel Club. That ended an attempt to build a dog race track there. Dunaway said he had not discussed the contacts with the full commission.

A group seeking a franchise must first incorporate and then prove its financial stability, he said.

He said that he would prefer that Southland Corp. owned any dog race track at Hot Springs because it is a financial success and has paid thousands of dollars to the state in taxes each year.

Dunaway noted, however, that the Miami contact lived in Arkansas part of the year and raced dogs at West Memphis.

Former Hope Bobcat Grid Star Completes 2,025 Mile Hike of Appalachian Trail

By TA LASETER
Star Feature Writer

Earlier this week it was noted in the Star that a former resident of Hope, Garnett Martin, had completed a six-months trip from Georgia to Maine on foot and by himself apparently for the sheer enjoyment of making such a trek. John Steinbeck wrote a best-selling book about his travels with a dog named Charlie, and Garnett Martin could do the same thing. The only difference is that Mr. Martin traveled alone and had no car. He walked the entire 2,025 miles of the Appalachian Trail.

Interesting letters to folks in Hope tell of the "hike" which began April 11 at Springer Mountain, Ga., and he said it was "a grand trip all the way. Met lots of people enroute who were making short or weekend trips and they were very much interested in my adventure." On one peak in the Bigelow Range he lamented the fact that fog closed in rapidly and he didn't get the good pictures he had wanted. Also, a forest ranger saw the climb up the mountain and offered his cabin in which to spend the night, but this Arkansas Traveler said, "No, thanks, I'll go on." As he worked his way down the other side of the mountain, he found a spot where there was no wind or fog and where it was quite a bit warmer. There he bedded down along the trail.

The retired Army colonel, who celebrated his 63rd birthday after arriving in Maine last month, is no stranger to adventure or cold weather. During a tour of duty with the Army in Alaska some years ago he secured some beautiful colored pictures of scenery and animal life. These were graciously shown to several groups in Hope by Mr. Martin when he lived here a few years ago. During this most recent period spent in Hope, this traveler was a jeweler in a local store. With a name like Garnett, the jewelry business was a natural for him. He stayed here with his mother, Mrs. John Martin until her death. He has a brother, Lawrence, in Marshall, Tex., and a brother, G.B., in Shreveport.

Garnett Martin writes that "it would take a book-length letter" to tell about all the states he has been in and the sights he has seen. He speaks of sleeping by a river one night and that he "built a barricade with a stick of pulp wood and rock so I would not roll into the river." Another time he camped on a mountain where "the only noticeable thing was the noise. Moose calls kept me awake most of the night."

Since the traveler had all his possessions and supplies on his back, it is understandable why he didn't bother carrying much of a wardrobe. In fact, he didn't carry any at all. The only clothes he had were the ones he wore. Getting them clean wasn't much of a problem. When a heavy rain came along, he just hung the clothes over tree limbs and let them "kind of soak." The sun dried them out and they were as good as new. With no change of clothes, the question arises as to what did he do while the wet clothes were drying (after all, he constantly refers to the cold in his letters). It's assumed that he found his sleeping bag useful for things besides "catching 40 winks." A picture of Garnett Martin appeared in the Bangor (Maine) Daily News along with a feature article about his trip to and arrival at nearby Millinocket, Me. He would not have been recognized by many folks here because of his bewhiskered appearance. But "On the Trail" shaving isn't needed and a beard might even prove helpful to combat the cold. A further look at a Martin who walked to Maine (not a robin who walked to Missouri) will be next week.

Questions on Cabinet Unanswered

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—Although President Johnson was quoted as saying "I have asked all the Cabinet to stay," questions remained today about the future of acting Atty. Gen. Nicholas deB. Katzenbach. Acting White House press secretary Malcolm Kilduff provided the presidential quotes to newsmen Wednesday, then added: "So it can be assumed they will stay."

Within two hours, however, NBC reported that Washington attorney Clark Clifford, a long-time friend and adviser to Johnson and counsel to former President Harry S. Truman, would be named to succeed Katzenbach, who became top man in the Justice Department when Robert F. Kennedy resigned two months ago.

Asked about the report, Kilduff said the President was "thoroughly satisfied with having Katzenbach in his present position." Kilduff added that Johnson was "very pleased with the Cabinet as a whole at this time" and if any changes were to be made, "he would be pleased to let you know."

Katzenbach is not a member of the Cabinet so the statement would presumably not include him.

Kilduff volunteered a further statement on the subject today, denying that Clifford would be named to the attorney generalship.

"That report is untrue," he said.

Mild Weather for The Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Fair skies and mild weather should prevail in Arkansas through Saturday, the U. S. Weather Bureau said today, though it will be a bit chilly in the northern half tonight. Maximum temperatures in the low 60s to low 70s today should give way to warmer readings in the mid 60s to mid 70s Saturday, the bureau said. Overnight low readings in the upper 30s to upper 40s are forecast. A cold front moving eastward through Arkansas Thursday brought light rain to the southern portion, but not in measurable amounts. El Dorado and Pine Bluff each reported a trace. Maximum temperatures Thursday ranged 69 degrees at Fayetteville to 80 degrees at El Dorado. Overnight low readings ranged from 31 degrees at Fayetteville to 42 degrees at Texarkana.

160,000 Ford Workers Face Layoff Now

DETROIT, Mich. (AP)—The Ford Motor Co.'s 160,000 hourly workers today face the possibility of a total layoff sometime next week over labor trouble still brewing nearly two months after agreement on a national contract.

However, hope persisted that this might be avoided.

Ford, blaming parts shortages from United Auto Workers' local strikes at eight factories, laid off 33,500 men Friday in plants around the country.

This brought the total idle to 57,600, including the 24,100 on strike. Ford has said its entire 90-plant system may become idle by next week.

Ford and the union agreed on a national contract Sept. 18. It does not become effective, however, until supplementing local-level agreements are reached at all the plants.

There was no apparent change in the company-union standoff since Ford agreed Friday to meet with the UAW's national Ford bargaining committee. The meeting is set for next Thursday.

Memories Can Bless and Burn

By J. W. DAVIS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Memories, as the poet said, can bless as well as burn.

Of blessed memory are the hours that John F. Kennedy spent with his small children.

They were precious times that had to be stolen from busy days. It was just a year ago today that President Kennedy took John John to Arlington National Cemetery for a wreath-laying ceremony honoring the nation's veterans.

Little John, not quite 3, didn't understand what was going on, and of course, he wriggled. While his father sat on the stage, John Jr. in blue shorts and white sweater, sat with a Secret Service agent on a marble bench below.

Once John broke away and headed for the stage. Recaptured, he was set down in a walkway where the agent and a White House photographer hemmed him in, as much as little boys are ever hemmed in.

After the ceremony, John ran between two of Kennedy's military aides and grabbed his father's hand. One of the aides took the boy's other hand.

When the three walked up to a set of stairs, John leaped into the air, swinging his legs as he dangled from the grown-ups' hands. Then, as they drove out of the cemetery, John waved energetic goodbys.

It was a father-and-son show that warmed the heart as it charmed the eye.

President Kennedy earlier had done his part in the ceremony.

He had proclaimed Veterans Day as a day to honor those who had served their country in time of war, and to renew American determination to achieve world peace "with patience, perseverance and courage."

They're having another Veterans Day ceremony in Arlington today.

Winthrop Would Oust Burch

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Winthrop Rockefeller said Thursday that he would support a motion of "no confidence" on Dean Burch, the Republican national chairman who is under fire.

The GOP's huge loss in the presidential race and others has prompted some party leaders to demand that Burch, and some other supporters of Barry Goldwater, be removed from the position.

Rockefeller, a gubernatorial candidate who is GOP national committeewoman from Arkansas, said she would "hesitate to judge so soon after the election."

Rockefeller said he would vote "no confidence" but "at this stage of the game I would not be a prime mover in such a motion."

Murder by Fraud New Legal Angle

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An appellate court is deliberating today on a new legal concept of murder by fraud, and on its decision hangs the fate of Dr. Marvin Phillips, convicted of hastening a girl's death by quackery.

The charge against Phillips, 35, a chiropractor, is second-degree murder. Indications are that the case is the first murder conviction rising from a nonviolent fraud.

Defense Attorney Melvin Belli asked the District Court of Appeal for a new trial Thursday, contending a law defined medical quackery as a misdemeanor.

"The district attorney's office has wrongfully parlayed a misdemeanor into a second-degree murder case," Belli said.

Phillips was convicted in Superior Court Sept. 4, 1962. He was accused of shortening the life of Linda Epping, an 8-year-old cancer victim.

Linda, daughter of Herman Epping, a North Hollywood tool designer, had a tumor growing out of her eye, a rare form of cancer which is usually fatal.

The prosecution said an operation was canceled on the strength of assurances of a cure by Phillips, who treated the tumor with muscular manipulations, enemas and vitamin pills.

Linda died Dec. 29, 1961, about six months after the onset of the disease and five months after she was taken to Phillips.

The prosecution's main medical witness, Dr. Bradley Stratisma, who diagnosed the cancer, testified Linda's life could have been prolonged a minimum of two months had surgery been performed at the time Phillips entered the case.

The murder conviction stemmed from Phillips' $500 fee. Fraud involving more than $200 is a felony in California. And the law, as in most states, says any death growing out of a felony is murder.

Belli, who earlier this year defended Jack Ruby, slayer of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, argues there is no precedent for basing a murder charge on a nonviolent crime such as fraud.

The three-member appellate court took the appeal under advisement.

Dallas Plant and Union Hit Accord

DALLAS (AP)—A spokesman for the United Auto Workers said today that the Dallas local has reached agreement with the Ford Motor Co.

There was no immediate information on when the Dallas employees will return to work.

The Dallas local, and seven others across the country, remained on strike over local issues although a general national agreement had been reached.

Terms of the settlement, involving about 1,400 workers, were not immediately announced.

No Polio Cases So Far This Year

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—No polio cases have been reported in Arkansas this year, but that may be a matter of luck rather than vaccine, the state Health Department said Thursday.

"There are a great many people without protection of either the Salk or Sabin vaccines," said Dr. William L. Bunch Sr., head of the Communicable Disease Control Division.

Four cases were reported through the first 10 months of 1963.

Bunch said some persons in Arkansas may now have mild cases of polio, but may not realize what it is that they have.

LBJ Pledges U.S. Help to Mexico

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson, winding up a 27-hour meeting with Mexico's president-elect, summoned two more Cabinet members to his ranch for conferences today.

Called to the ranch were Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze. The President wanted to talk to them about their departmental budget and goals.

Johnson's visitor from Mexico, Gustavo Diaz Ordaz, was to depart in early afternoon.

During the morning, Johnson took him on a tour of the 400-acre LBJ Ranch. And the two leaders talked informally about problems facing their two countries.

The President, who has been in Texas since election eve, is expected to return to Washington Sunday night. But he will come back to his ranch the following weekend for an indefinite stay that may last through Thanksgiving.

Johnson today proclaimed Nov. 26 as Thanksgiving, urging that all Americans pray on that day "that peace, reason, understanding and good will may reign supreme throughout the world."

Diaz Ordaz, himself a landslide election victor who will be inaugurated Dec. 1 was to fly direct from the ranch landing strip to Mexico City after an informal luncheon.

In welcoming Diaz Ordaz Thursday afternoon, Johnson said: "We are meeting here to talk together and to work together, and to take up arms together against the ancient enemies of mankind — disease and poverty and hunger and ignorance."

Diaz Ordaz responded by saying: "I am here to seal a friendship with a warm handshake with President Johnson from me and the Mexican people, and to him and through him to the American people."

He said he was sure the two leaders "will be able to work together with reciprocal respect and joint cooperation to maintain the principles that have inspired our two peoples."

The principal reason for the ranch get-together between Johnson and Diaz Ordaz was simply to become acquainted.

Johnson acknowledged problems — such as over Cuba — do exist between the United States and Mexico.

"We are here to discuss them," he said. "And in the days ahead we will resolve them in peace, with reason, with justice to each other."

The President and Mrs. Johnson welcomed Diaz Ordaz and his wife with a Texas-style barbecue. And it was there that they publicly expressed their hopes for a close working relationship and amicable relations between their neighboring nations.

Johnson said his visitors "make us very proud to be in our home and on our land."

Diaz Ordaz seemed genuinely pleased with the welcome accorded him.

In the evening, there was a dinner for six and Johnson proposed a simple toast to Diaz Ordaz: "May Mexico prosper in peace under your leadership."

Directors Meet

TOPEKA, Kan. — Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. directors hold their monthly meeting here Saturday, the first Topeka meeting since 1958. Directors are from Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri and Kansas.

President to Focus on Social Welfare Issues

By FRANK CORMIER

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson focuses his attention today on social welfare problems and his legislative program. But he may find it hard to stay indoors, for this is the first day of the deer hunting season.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and Secretary of Welfare Anthony J. Celebrezze are on hand to help in planning the legislation Johnson will recommend to Congress in January. The domestic proposals he will submit will form the basis of his "Great Society" program, and Wirtz and Celebrezze's departments will play major roles in implementing it.

But the biggest event in these parts today is the start of the deer hunting season and while the President, an ardent hunter, insists he will stick to his official talks through most of the day, he allows that he might make one little outing in search of the fleet-footed deer on his ranchland.

Friday afternoon, President-elect Gustavo Diaz Ordaz of Mexico ended a 27-hour stay at the LBJ ranch.

State Farmers Buying Corn

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service said Thursday that Arkansas farmers have ordered 397 railroad carloads of government-owned corn since August to relieve a shortage caused by the summer drought.

Forty-seven of the 52 counties authorized under the program have ordered the corn, with Logan County heading the list with 25 carloads.

The ASCS said that oats, barley and grain sorghum will be included in the program when the prices can be fixed. The farmers get the corn at $1.01 to $1.35 a bushel.

The lower figure is three-fourths of the price support rate and it is paid on grain to be fed to milk cows and breeding stock. The later figure, which is the support price, is paid on corn for other livestock.

The program is scheduled to expire April 30.

Opposition to Dam Set for Hearing

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Anti-dam forces filed suit in U. S. District Court here Thursday to stop an Army Engineers hearing designed to sample public reaction toward a plan to dam the Buffalo River.

The Central Arkansas Chapter of the Ozark Society filed the suit, claiming that the Engineers have withheld information pertinent, preventing anti-dam groups from being able "to make an intelligent presentation at the hearing."

The suit asked that no hearing be allowed until this information is handed over.

A hearing date on the suit has not been set.

Col. Charles Maynard, district Army Engineer who, along with the corps was named defendant in the suit, said the hearing Engineers planned for Nov. 18 would have sampled "frank public opinion about Engineers' plans to put one dam on the Buffalo."

The Ozark Society wants the river undammed. Dr. Neil Compton is president of the group, which has headquarters in Fayetteville.

H. Charles Johnston, president of the Central Arkansas Chapter, and Luncie Cash and Patrick Heilmann, property owners, are plaintiffs in the suit.

Johnston said Engineers called the planned multi-purpose dam economically justified and the hearing would be one in which public opinion would be shaped and legislation influenced.

He said the corps has refused to provide information it has used in deciding the proposed dam is justified.

Johnston, at a news conference, showed copies of letters he said he exchanged with Maynard. In the letters Maynard was quoted as saying that Engineers' information was not for public release.

They Travel to School in Comfort

By JAMES CALOGERO

MIDDLETON, Mass. (AP) — Those who commute to school with Bradburn Barrows, 18, travel in comfort and style foreign to today's hot-rodders. Bradburn drives a shiny, black, 12-cylinder Lincoln limousine that's 19 1/2 feet long and fitted out like a living room. It has leather upholstery, teakwood paneling, foot pillows, chromium fixtures, window blinds, an intercom system and a roll-down window that separates the passengers from the chauffeur.

Who Steals My Name . . .

By Clay Richards

The Story: Blake believes he has found one of Emery's associates, a man named Joe Balk, who seems to have a great deal of money.

VI.

He was a little dark guy with a know-it-all smirk on his face. "A friend of mine decided to help me out," he said.

"The fellow who was always paying for your drinks? I ain't seen him around for several days."

"Of course it was Dick," the blonde said. She sounded bitter. "And you can bet that Joe pushed him into it somehow."

Joe laughed. It had a nasty sound. "What're you kicking about? He gave you some dough, too."

He put his glass down with a thud, twisted off the stool and swaggered back toward the men's room.

"Sorry, Trudy," the bartender said. "I would've stopped him sooner, but it happened too quickly." He went off to serve a couple at the end of the bar.

"Pardon me," I said to the girl. She turned to look at me, her face still tight with anger.

"Your friend seems to be in a nasty mood."

"He's no friend of mine," she snapped.

"Well, I thought it might continue to be uncomfortable for you with him here. I thought perhaps you'd permit me to take you somewhere else for a drink."

This time she really looked at me. "Where?" she asked after a pause.

"I was thinking of Jack Delaney's," I said.

"Why not?" she said shrugging. She finished her drink and picked up her purse. "I'll see you, Henry," she said to the bartender who had come back up to the bar.

"Sure, Trudy," he said. "Sorry."

"It's okay. Tell the little jerk chauffeur. "This is the greatest," said young Barrows today. "We didn't know such comfort when I was driving my 1932 hot rod with no hood and no roof."

"We've had as many as 17 in the car. At drive-in theaters we invite young people from other cars to join us and sit around in a crowd."

"We've had football rallies, birthday parties and even smokeouts in the car."

For the unknown, Barrows explains that a smokeout is when a bunch of guys sit around in the car smoking cigars and cigarettes with all the windows up and the blinds down.

Ron Melzard, 17, another companion, said of the smokeouts: "It occupies us. It's better than sitting around getting into trouble."

Barrows said he isn't trying to compete with the school buses, "but the more kids I pack into the car the more there are to chip in for gas."

"They don't make 12-cylinder cars any more. This car is a 1939 model, and it's not exactly gentle on gas consumption. I bet I don't get eight miles a gallon on it."

"We've ordered as much as 20 gallons at one time, and the gas tank wasn't even full. And the other day when the oil was changed it took 11 quarts."

Young Barrows obtained the 1939 Lincoln recently through his father, R. Lionel Barrows, inventor of an automatic pin-setting machine for bowling.

The elder Barrows said he had got the Lincoln from a friend, Merton Barrows of nearby Topsfield, who is no relation, by putting up a 1919 Model T Ford and $1,500.

"DEAR ABBY"

PRAYER FOR A MOTHER

By Abigail Van Buren

Dear Abby: My beloved mother passed away recently, so I called the minister and asked him for the wording of some prayer I could say for my mother, and he said, "I'm too busy—and a lot of good prayer will do her now!" You see, Mamma went to church long ago, but my father never liked to go, so Mamma finally quit going. Abby, I can't believe that Heaven is open only to church members. I've called all the book stores in town and they say there aren't any prayers for the dead in any of the prayer books they have. I've heard there are places where you send a few dollars, and they pray for the dead, but I don't know their addresses. Abby, I'd be so grateful if you would print a short prayer for my mother before I go to sleep. Any faith is acceptable. I can't let you send it to my home because my father looks over the mail first and I'm sure I'd never get it. Please don't turn down my odd request. It means the world to me. Thank you, and God bless you, Abby. Sign me—

A PRAYER FOR MAMMA

Dear Prayer: From a Hebrew prayer book: "I remember thee in this solemn hour, my dear mother. I remember the days thou didst dwell on earth, and thy tender love watched over me like a guardian angel. Thou hast gone from me, but the bond which unites our souls can never be severed; thy image lives within my heart. May the merciful Father reward thee for the faithfulness and kindness thou hast shown me; may He lift up the light of His countenance upon thee, and grant thee eternal peace. Amen."

Dear Abby: My husband is 56 and I am 55. We have been married thirty years and aside from the usual differences other married couples have, we have had no major marital problems. Yesterday my husband came home from a business trip and flatly announced to me that he was "impotent!" Naturally, my first question was, "How do you know?" He turned red, never said a word, and walked into the other room. Did I do anything wrong?

PUZZLED

Dear Puzzled: No. But he probably did.

Dear Abby: I am an attractive middle-aged woman who lost her husband 7 years ago, after 20 years of happy marriage. (No children.) I hold a good position and have an adequate income. The first five years of widowhood I threw myself into my work and shut myself off from the world, socially. Then I started to go out occasionally. Two years ago I met a man I could really love. We had everything in common and it was just like a young first romance. Here's the catch. He told me from the start that he had been deeply hurt once in marriage and he will never marry again. He repeatedly tells me how much he loves me, but marriage is out. He could replace me in a minute because he has much to offer. I know no other man who could compare with him. Am I wise to end it right now?

DISTRESSED

Dear Distressed: Yes. When a marriage-minded woman is

Today in Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk forecasts trouble ahead in Southeast Asia unless Red China decides to leave its neighbors alone. "We have made it very clear we are not going to pull away and leave Southeast Asia to be overrun," Rusk said Wednesday in an interview recorded for the CBS television program "The United States and the Two Chinas."

Rusk disclosed no basic changes in U.S. policy towards China. He said it would be up to the Communist Chinese to change their policies if tensions are to ease.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $300,000 damage suit against Senate aide Bobby Baker will probably be settled out of court next week, according to Washington attorney David Carliner. Carliner said Wednesday that Baker and his attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, are out of town, preventing any decision until next week. Carliner represents Capitol Vending Co., which operates vending machines in the suit. Baker used his influence on Capitol Hill to have a lucrative contract taken away from the firm. Carliner denied a Newsweek magazine story this week which said that he, and Williams reached an agreement Oct. 5 with a proviso that the agreement be kept secret until after last week's presidential election.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Labor Department reported Wednesday that a survey of white collar workers from clerks to attorneys showed salaries up 2 to 5 per cent over the past year.

The survey covering 75 job levels in 12 occupations said monthly salaries of white collar personnel ranged from $259 for clerks who did routine filing, to $2,024 for lawyers handling complex legal problems.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Space scientists say that long-known variations in the earth's gravitational pull may be responsible for the purported temporary joggling of U.S. satellites out of orbit as they pass over the Solomon Islands in the Pacific.

The scientists said in interviews Wednesday they doubted that any truly mysterious forces are responsible for the deviations.

Dr. Alvin McNish of the National Bureau of Standards explained that variations in gravity at different sites on the earth stem from two main causes:

The fact that the earth is rotating — and is not a perfect sphere — makes the pull of gravity stronger at the earth's north and south poles than it is elsewhere.

Distance of a particular part of the earth's surface to the earth's center makes a difference in the gravity pull.

Election Results

LITTLE ROCK — Deputy Secretary of State D. D. Glover said Thursday that 59 counties have certified general election results to the secretary of state's office.

Glover said county election commissions have until Sunday to file their certifications of the election results.

Susan Hampshire stands her ground against a threatening Albert Finney in this scene from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Night Must Fall." Finney plays a lonely young psychiatrist driven to murder in the last new drama which follows his tremendously successful performance in "Tom Jones."

Sunday - Monday at Saenger

Nancy Kwan watches Mr. St. John's attentions to Robert Coulet with a cold eye in this scene from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Honey Moon Hotel." Coulet makes his screen debut in the Panavision and color romantic comedy, following his stage success in "Camelot," and the film also stars Robert Morse, comedy star of Broadway's "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying." Henry Levin directed.

Figures SMU Can't Score on Porkers

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Several things of interest can happen Saturday in Southwest Conference football but only one is really important - will Arkansas nail down a tie for the championship and a spot in the Cotton Bowl?

The answer is in the positive on almost every hand as the odds forecast a smashing triumph of first place Arkansas over last place Southern Methodist.

The Methodists, trying to salvage a season of disaster, will be attempting an upset high in the Ozark hills, the balliwick of what may be Arkansas' finest team yet.

Anyway, the Razorbacks will be going after a record 10th straight victory.

Texas meets bitter enemy Texas Christian at Fort Worth in the second most important game. The Longhorns have a 7-1 record, are rated fifth in the nation and are prime prospects for a bowl game. They also still have hopes of at least sharing the conference championship.

An Arkansas victory would still leave Texas in position to tie for the title in the event Arkansas lost to Texas Tech next week - that is, if the Longhorns beat Texas Christian.

They are solid choices to make it but no more than in past years when the Horned Frogs proved to be their chief tormentors.

Texas A&M, all embued and stuff over finally winning one, will be swiping at Rice at Houston in a game meaning practically nothing in the conference race but a matter of pride for a couple of teams that can't point with much pride to their records.

The Aggies beat Southern Methodist 23-0 last week to break a seven-game losing streak. Rice took a 21-0 hammering from Arkansas. The Owls haven't won one in three weeks.

Baylor and Texas Tech go intersectional - the last games of the season against outside foes for the conference.

Baylor takes its pass-pitching brigade to Lexington for a battle with Kentucky, which also is known to put the ball in the air quite often.

Texas Tech hosts Washington State and anticipates its sixth victory of the season.

Tech is favored to make it, Baylor isn't.

Three out of four last week didn't hurt the average any. Here's how they look Saturday:

Arkansas - Southern Methodist - SMU can't score on even average defense and the Arkansas defense is well above average.

and Mrs. M.C. Johnson, pastor of Bethel A.M.E. Church, are in progress, and will climax Sunday afternoon, November 15, at 3 p.m.

Guest church Sunday will be Rev. L. T. Turner, and the members of BeeBee Memorial C.M.E. Church.

This service is being sponsored by the Stewards and Trustee Boards.

Hope Wins 7-0 Over Stubborn Nashville

By CARTERH ARDAGE
Hope Star Sportswriter

Although they statistically butchered their opposition, the Bobcats were only able to eke out a 7-0 score to down the Nashville Scrappers last night at Nashville.

They say that the statistics are for the loser. They won't be much consolation for the Scrappers. The Bobcats secured sixteenth first downs against two for Nashville, beat them in rushing yardage 225 to 74, and in the passing game 113 to 19. The only thing that Nashville did better than Hope was fumble. They lost the ball six times.

Coach Alan Howard had this to say after the game: "We're not disappointed at all to get out by a 7-0 score. We knew that they were tough all along."

"We did make some mistakes, but so did they, or we wouldn't have won."

Although the Nashville rooters hadn't filled their side of the stands by game time, the Bobcat fans were already overflowing onto the home side. The Hope side was completely filled.

After Nashville had given up possession on lost fumbles no less than three times in the first period, the Bobcats produced the night's only TD.

Pushed deep into their own territory by a punt, the Bobcats had first and ten situation on their own 15. Buddy Jordan retreated and sent the bomb to Jerry Burnett, who hauled it in on his own 35 and scrambled to paydirt, crossing the goal ten yards ahead of his pursuers.

Burnett then added the PAT to give the Cats their winning points.

Just before the end of the first period of play, the Bobcats began another drive; this one originating on their own 14. It carried to the Scrapper 22 before age; Arkansas by two touchdowns.

Texas-Texas A&M - The Aggies will repeat last year's triumph.

Baylor-Kentucky-Baylor is in the same situation as last year, playing a strong foe after a tough battle with Texas and it looks like another loss for the crippled Bears.

Texas Tech-Washington State - Texas Tech ought to take it by a couple of touchdowns.

ALC Against Auto Tag Sale Change

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Legislative Committee of the Arkansas Education Association is expected to issue a statement Saturday highly critical of a proposal to support the State Police with general revenues.

An Arkansas Legislative Council Committee recommended Thursday that this be done. A battle appears to be brewing between the council committee and school forces, who say that every dollar taken from general revenues for other sources is taken away from education.

Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, declined to comment today on the proposal. He said the AEA Legislative Committee would meet Saturday and probably would issue a statement.

These HANDS of MINE

Whether building a life or a skyscraper is involved, a clear understanding of the project is necessary... a plan must be in mind. The man who starts to raise a family without first considering his earning power, cost involved and the necessity for God's help — faces serious difficulty. To correctly raise a building an architect, blueprint and a builder are essential. To properly build a man — prayer, Bible reading, Sunday school and church attendance are good tools to work with. To calculate the pitch a roof must be is easy but without God's help, to determine the worth of a young life is impossible. Architects design houses. Builders put them together. But only God can build a man out of a boy. The church, through these firm hands of mine, pictures to humanity the world's greatest designer... Jesus the Christ. World builders could not get along very well without Him. He has never poured a bad foundation, nor laid a sill out of level, nor raised a wall off plum. "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain who build it," Psalms 127:1.
